

Msgr. T. Brendan O'Sullivan

October 31, 1930 – July 17, 2019

REV. BRENDAN SULLIVAN

The recent reception for Fr. Brendan Sullivan at the Hotel Dauphin, New York, was a great success. His relatives attended from Boston and Providence. The success of the function was due to the splendid cooperation of all who attended, from the oldest, Mrs. Margaret Harrington Lynch, to the youngest, Patrick Murphy, junr'

Fr. Sullivan spoke of the great reception he had received and thanked all present. He said he had always heard a person must come to New York if they wanted to know about Ireland

He is a distinguished scholar with great literary ability, and was the editor of his college paper. He has gone to his mission field in California.

New York Newspaper Article

Published after his arrival in New York from Ireland

St. Joseph Parish, Redding, CA, First Sacramento Diocese Assignment

St. Joseph Church, Clarksburg, CA

Photo taken in January, 1974 when Brendan O'Sullivan was assigned there as associate pastor.

More than 100 persons attended groundbreaking ceremonies for the three-building Saint Anthony's Parish complex last Sunday. Officiating were Monsignor Cornelius P. Higgins, left, Bishop Alden J. Bell, and Reverend T. Brendan O'Sullivan.

Building on faith

Groundbreaking on parish center caps two-year fund-raising effort

Our Beloved Pastor

We hereby present

Reverend Father Brendan O'Sullivan

with this Certificate of Appreciation, in recognition of your life of service to your flock. You Baptized us. Educated us. Absolved our sins. Taught us with marvelous sermons. Married us. Buried us. You built our Parish and our House of worship. Managed our finances. Humored us. Most of all You loved us. Our prayerful thanks to you.

Eight O'Clock Massers The Older Generation

